

WELCOME to Apostles Lutheran Church! This congregation is a member of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS). We believe and teach that the Bible is the divinely inspired Word of God, and the only means by which God has revealed the way of salvation, which is in Jesus Christ. We pray that this hour will refresh your heart as God draws you closer to Himself.

PRAYERS

With cancer: Arnie Priebe; For Aaron Utecht and Beth Degler, as they wed this coming Saturday (Aaron is a graduate of UWP and attended Apostles) and for those traveling

Ongoing: Raymond Parish, Robert Conklin; w/ MS: Phil Conklin & Patricia Schoonover

WELCOME !

We're happy that you're here with us today to hear the Word of the Lord!
May the Lord bless the hearing of His Holy Word and grant you joy in the forgiveness of sins.

UWP NEW STUDENT REGISTRATION FOR THE 2010-2011 SCHOOL YEAR

This week and one week in July, Lutheran Student Fellowship (LSF) will host a table at UWP for new student registration, distributing information about LSF and Apostles during those times and welcoming the students (and parents). If you can spare a couple of hours to help and meet new students, please come join us. The times for all dates are from 11:45am-1:15pm (set up is at 11:30am). Free lunch at the university is available afterwards. Just let us know.

The dates for new student registration are:

You shall honor your Father and your Mother. (The Fourth Commandment)

¹⁰⁹ First, then, learn what this commandment requires concerning honor to parents. You are to esteem and prize them as the most precious treasure on earth. ¹¹⁰ In your words you are to behave respectfully toward them, and not address them discourteously, critically, and censoriously, but submit to them and hold your tongue, even if they go too far. ¹¹¹ You are also to honor them by your actions (that is, with your body and possessions), serving them, helping them, and caring for them when they are old, sick, feeble, or poor; all this you should do not only cheerfully, but with humility and reverence, as in God's sight. He who has the right attitude toward his parents will not allow them to suffer want or hunger, but will place them above himself and at his side and will share with them all he has to the best of his ability.

¹¹² In the second place, notice what a great, good, and holy work is here assigned to children. Alas, it is utterly despised and brushed aside, and no one recognizes it as God's command or as a holy, divine word and precept. For if we had regarded it as such, it would have been apparent to all that they who lived according to these words must also be holy men. Then there would have been no need to institute monasticism or "spiritual estates." Every child would have remained faithful to this commandment and would have been able to set his conscience right toward God, saying: "If I am to do good and holy works, I know of none better than to show all honor and obedience to my parents, since God himself has commanded it. ¹¹³ What God commands must be much nobler than anything we ourselves may devise. And because there is no greater or better teacher to be found than God, there can also be no better teaching than his. Now, he amply teaches what we should do if we wish to perform truly good works, and by commanding them he shows that he is well pleased with them. So, if this is God's command, and it embodies his highest wisdom, then I shall never improve upon it." (Tappert, T. G. (2000, c1959).
